Being a lover of dogs we just couldn't resist this as was printed in "Dog World" of a few years back.

Here's to the little doggie
That met a little tree,
The little tree said, "Come, pup,
Have one on me."
The little pup replied,
As gentle as a mouse,
"No thanks, little tree,
I just had one on the house."

From the same publication and written by Mae Norton Morris comes another.

When I see a boy who hasn't a dog,
Or a dog that hasn't a boy—
I think of the lot they are missing
Of frolic and genuine joy,
Some parents think dogs are a nuisance,
Just something to bark and annoy—
They can't know how badly a boy needs a dog
Or how sadly a dog needs a boy.

Cypress C of C Ok's New Grocery

The regular meeting of the Cypress Chamber of Commerce was held in the school building last Monday evening. The meeting was presided over by the president, S. V. Fullerton.

One of the subjects brought to the attention of the members was concerning new businesses. It was recommended that a land use permit application by H. Ihnen to open a store on Lincoln avenue east of Miller road be approved. The application will come before the county planning commission this week.

The president introduced Beth Kroesen, the editor of the new Cypress Enterprise. She explained to the members that in response to many requests of local merchants for a newspaper specifically for the town of Cypress, her brother, Paul Kroesen, owner and publisher of the West Orange County Publishing Company in Buena Park, had made necessary arrangements for office space with Oren B. Harvey in the building which houses Harvey's Hardware store. She also stated that printing equipment has been purchased to install in the rear of the building as soon as alterations can be made. She stressed the fact that the publishers are anxious to give the community good service but that cooperation from the citizens is also necessary.

New Dining Room Opened At Ernie's Drive-In

The formal opening for the new dining room addition to Ernie's Drive-in restaurant was held last Saturday. Catering especially to Spanish foods, the dining room presents an attractive appearance. Bright colors predominate with the knotty pine walls on three sides of the room hung with decorations suggestive of Old Mexico. Huge hats woven of brightly colored straw and decorated "bataes" or wooden bowls are used effectively and the fourth wall, which is stucco, is painted with Mexican scenes. Fringed serapes, brought from Mexico by the mother of Marion Precie, the proprietor, are used as drapes for the six windows.

Red and blue topped tables and chairs with chromium frames furnished the room and harmonize with the red floor covering.

In addition to the Mexican food which is being prepared by a Mexican cook, chops, steaks and hamburgers are served with the genial proprietor as chef.

Local Pair Wed In Las Vegas

The marriage of Gwendolyn Culp to Price Siebert occurred on Tuesday evening in Las Vegas, Nevada. The bride party made the trip by air. The bride was prettily attired in a steel gray tailored suit and wore red accessories. Siebert is a local contractor and the best wishes of the community are extended to the happy couple.

Breakfast Group Plans For Town Improvements

Proving to be more convenient to the local business men are the bi-monthly breakfasts, the latest of which was held last Tuesday morning with an attendance of 20 persons. The men formerly met for luncheon but attendance was poor due to the inability of the men to get away from business. These meetings were discontinued during the holidays.

It was decided to elect a board of directors at the first meeting in April to work with the chairman, Frank Noe, and secretary-treasurer, Dick Hatbeck. Many plans for civic betterment are being considered by this group of public-spirited men.

Attention All Ex-Sea Bees

There is a battalion being formed at the Naval Air Station, Santa Ana. All rates are open—especially yeomen and storekeepers. If you are an ex-Sea Bee and not over 35 years of age you are urgently needed. Bring your discharge and sign up either at the post office in Santa Ana on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 12 noon or out at the Naval Air Base, barracks "C," on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Let's get on the ball—with your help we "can do."

Supervisor Baker Again Candidate For 3rd District

Announcement today by County Supervisor James A. Baker of his candidacy for re-election as third district representative on the county board, drew attention to the impressive record of advancement made in county affairs during his administration.

With water supply of first importance to the county, the present county administration has worked constantly on a program to develop and conserve water, the announcement pointed out, and is currently expending approximately $168,000 on facilities at Prado dam that will add an estimated 8000 acre feet annually to the supply.

Ranking scarcely below water supply in importance, inauguration of a comprehensive county-wide sanitation program to provide sewerage for the rapid expansion in the years ahead, was voted as an achievement of the present county board, which is assisting in working out a program acceptable to both rural and urban areas.

Development of the county airport under an interim operating permit from the federal government, giving Orange county numerous present advantages and securing a strategic position for future benefits from air traffic, is credited to the present administration.

The third district in particular has benefited materially from county development moves during Baker's service on the board, said the announcement, citing highways, fire protection, and establishment of a system of county dumps, nine of which now are in operation, to the mutual benefit of city and rural areas.

Fire protection service has improved extensively in the past six years, it was shown, and the third district now has three new fire stations in addition to the original fire station at Yorba Linda and the fire protection district that has been operating at Buena Park. The new ones are the La Habra fire department, West Anaheim fire department and Cypress fire department, all of which cooperate effectively with city fire departments in any fire fighting.

Besides maintaining highways at high standards, the present county administration has pressed an aggressive campaign to improve existing highways under the state primary system, also federal-aid highways, and it is significant, said the announcement, that 13 of these primary highways and seven federal-aid highways are situated in the third supervisorial district.

New Business Firm Opens In Cypress

The barrack building on Lincoln boulevard between Electric and Watson streets now houses the Trio Cabinet Shop. As the name implies, this new firm consists of three members, H. J. Pennington, Alton Black, and Earl Page.

The shop will specialize in cabinet work, screens and window frames. Judging from the sample now on display, patrons desiring something modern and attractive in the way of built-in equipment and cabinets need look no farther than Cypress.

H. J. Pennington states that there are still some changes to be made in the physical appearance of the building, such as an entrance on Lincoln and space to display objects of the firm's handiwork. Otherwise, business goes on as usual, since the individual members of the organization have lived in and around Cypress for some time and although their orders for work have taken them to Brea, Placentia, Yorba Linda and the surrounding territory.

Laurel P.T.A. Hears Speech On Juvenile Books

Mrs. Cleo Ard will replace Mrs. M. R. Fanning as president of the Laurel Parent-Teacher association, annual election of officers determined at a meeting of the organization last Wednesday. Installation ceremonies will take place in April. Elected to serve with Mrs. Ard were Mrs. G. T. Gaa, vice president; Mrs. John Houston, secretary; Mrs. L. Smith, treasurer.

Guest speaker was Mrs. B. Waltman of the county library who spoke on children's books, showing samples of the various types. She urged parents to make books available for children of every age level and ability, beginning with cloth books for the very young which can be secured with colorful pictures and washable pages. By way of contrast, Mrs. Waltman displayed a facsimile of the first child's book ever printed which was over 200 years old. Although it was meant for children, it had nothing to interest a child in reading, since it contained mostly rules on etiquette and behavior.

Announcement was made of the bakery sale which will be sponsored by the P.T.A. on March 27 to raise funds for immediate use. Mrs. W. H. Hawkins will head the committee assisted by members of the executive board.

Attendance banner was won by the sixth grade taught by Mrs. Thelma Vanderleek, which has been the winner every month but one. Musical program consisted of three saxophone solos by Lonnie Ferguson of Hawaiian Gardens.

Postmasters Hold Meet

The monthly dinner meeting of the Orange County Postmasters' association took place Thursday evening at Cary's cafe in Santa Ana with Postmaster Mrs. Blanche Dunn of Los Alamitos acting as hostess. Guest speaker was Judge Wood, post office inspector, of Los Angeles, whose interesting commentary on experiences and changes in the postal services in the last half century were highly entertaining.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Lois Ann Fanning who presented a group of accordion numbers.

The next meeting of the group will be held at Laguna Beach hotel with the Laguna Beach postmaster, Baird Coffin, as host.

Allean Rae Brooks Weds Dakotan

The Cypress Church of the Nazarene was the scene of a simple wedding ceremony on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, uniting in marriage Allean Rae Brooks of Cypress and Dewey D. Wells of South Dakota.

Rev. Eric Jordan performed the ceremony in the presence of eight family members and close friends. Standing with the couple were J. P. Brooks, father of the bride, and Richard J. Williams.

Buena Park Plans "Home Town Day" Celebration

The businessmen of Buena Park declared themselves unanimously in favor of another celebration similar to the "Hometown Day" that was held last year in the spring, at their meeting Wednesday noon. Chairman Sullivan will bring the matter before the group at a later meeting to decide upon the date and methods of organizing the affair.

A report listing the types of business in Buena Park and the number of each was read and will be filed with the County Planning Commission for reference and as a matter of information.

A spirited discussion was conducted on the subject of traffic through the school zone on Commonwealth avenue. Several complaints have been heard on the condition and lack of control over fast drivers was admitted. A delegation will attend the next meeting of the West Orange County Safety Council at Cypress Tuesday evening to bring the matter to their attention and, eventually to county and state officials.

Marvin Wandrud, who was appointed to head a committee last week on devising a means of controlling peddlers and door-to-door salesmen in Buena Park reported. He has set up a committee of merchants who will judge the merits of a product being offered by salesmen and check their credentials before authorizing issuance of cards permitting them to solicit in Buena Park. He suggested that a campaign be undertaken to impress upon the people of the community the need for having every unknown firm seeking to do business here checked before entering into a transaction. The Information Desk in the Grand Auto Company will act as clerk in issuing the clearance cards.

Wandrud pointed out that the success of the campaign to stop swindling and cheap merchandising here depends upon the cooperation of everyone in the community. Every salesman must be reported who does not have the proper credentials.

West Orange County Publishing Company Opens Cypress Office

The West Orange County Publishing Company, publishers of the Buena Park News, the Cypress Enterprise and the Los Alamitos Press announce the opening of a branch office and commercial printing plant in Cypress this week. To occupy space in the Harvey Hardware building at 5516 Lincoln, the new office is provided in order that editing and part of the mechanical production of the Cypress paper can be handled there.

In addition to the newspaper facilities in Cypress, a complete commercial printing shop is being installed in the rear room of the store, according to Paul Kroesen, owner of the organization. Kroesen also stated that he has appointed his sister, Miss Beth Kroesen, as editor of the Cypress Enterprise and that she would be in charge of all activities in connection with the Enterprise. Miss Kroesen was raised in a family of printers and publishers and brings a wide experience in the field to her new position. She recently left a position in Los Angeles in order to take over her new duties in Cypress.

Kroesen pointed out that the separate plant in Cypress is in line with the plans of the company to serve the newspaper and printing needs of the western part of the county. The expansion will continue to include Los Alamitos at some future date, he said. The rapid growth of this area is a challenge to any company to keep abreast of the demand upon it. The facilities for production and for community service will be increased as rapidly as the necessity arises, he said.

Plans For 104 Los Alamitos Homes Told

Plans to build 104 more homes soon in the Alamo Ranches tract just north of the entrance to the Naval Air Station were announced today by Franklin Hall, in charge of construction for Alamo Development Co., which already has sold the first 85 homes there although most of them are not yet completed.

At the same time Hall announced that he is throwing the weight of his organization into Orange county's fight for a county-wide sewage disposal system declaring the system is vital to further growth.

Hall said that applications for financing of the second tract of 104 homes are being processed by FHA and that as soon as that agency completes its work on the form, building permits will be obtained and work started.

Estimated cost of the new tract of homes is more than $750,000.

WILL WORK FOR SEWERS

The development, which is to number 310 homes when completed, more than doubling the population of Los Alamitos, has suffered some setback because of the lack of sewers, Hall said. The county health department at first permitted one type of individual sewage disposal unit for each home but later discovered the soil to be less absorbent than had at first been calculated and raised the requirements to a septic tank with two leaching holes to each residence, according to E. E. Frisbie, sanitation expert of the department.

Hall said that the difficulty only proves that Orange county must have a sewer system and revealed that he will throw all the weight of his organization into the drive to organize a county-wide sanitation system.

"West Orange county in particular," he declared, "is a dead issue without sewers. There are other developments than ours, and much larger ones, including the proposed 2500-home development just north of Barber City, which is just waiting for the promise of sewers to get under way. Industries too, vital to the county's continued growth, must have sewers if they are to set up plants here."

Kroesen also stated that he has appointed his sister, Miss Beth Kroesen, as editor of the Cypress Enterprise and that she would be in charge of all activities in connection with the Enterprise. Miss Kroesen was raised in a family of printers and publishers and brings a wide experience in the field to her new position. She recently left a position in Los Angeles in order to take over her new duties in Cypress.

County Publishers Entertained At Knott's Place

On Monday evening, March 22, the owner and publisher of the West Orange County Publishing Company, of which the Cypress Enterprise is a part, was host to the Orange County unit of the California Newspaper Publishers' association. The dinner meeting was held in the Indian room of the Buffalo steak house at Knott's Berry place. Publishers from newspapers in Orange county, both daily and weekly, were in attendance.

Following a delicious steak dinner, the guests were entertained and entertained by a fellow member of the association, Ben Reddick. He was especially able and capable to handle the facets of his subject, "Press photography," since he followed the career of a photographer since high school days and was formerly employed by the Los Angeles Examiner before he went into the newspaper business for himself. He is editor of the Newport-Balboa Press.

AT YOUR SERVICE

With this, our initial effort, we spring into an "enterprise" for Cypress. Its success or failure will depend upon how we work as a team — your newspaper and you as subscribers. Community spirit is the backbone of every undertaking. We can work together to make this "the best in the west" and the best is what we will strive for. We want to be proud of Cypress, and we want you to be proud of your newspaper, which, with this issue, becomes a publication for you alone. There is only one way such pride can be justified, and that is for all of us to put the welfare of our town first, before petty personal whims and selfishness.

As for us, we are proud of our family tradition as craftsmen, and while we wouldn't be foolish enough to say that we won't ever make mistakes, we do feel that our heritage is such as to justify our interest in this new venture for Cypress. We do not ever consider that we have passed the saturation point in knowledge or have reached a stage where we cannot learn more, so for that reason we try to keep alert and in step with the times by allying ourselves with the organizations pertaining to our profession so that you as our readers, may eventually reap the benefit. We like to think of the boy whose father sent him off to college with the sound advice that if he would just keep still and listen to all the professors could teach him, then, with what he already knew, he would know more than the professors!

And speaking of spring, as we were in the first sentence, what better time to form the beginning of a project we hope to see grow and develop. In the front yard are six little fruit trees, just planted, but sending out little pink buds — the promise of abundance in the future — maybe not this year, or the next, but eventually. And in the distance the snow-capped mountains rest against the back-drop of sky, a promise of moisture to the vegetation and animal-life in the valleys below. And in the closer distance the oil wells, nature keeping faith with California and her industries and business.

So we offer this, our initial "Enterprise," to Cypress. May its growth be as constant as the years.

GETTING ACQUAINTED

We began to get acquainted with potential Cypress Enterprise advertisers the first of the week by making a door to door canvass. Partly on this account, and mostly out of a curiosity to view beautiful objects of another era, we stumbled onto Walley's Antique Shop, on Lincoln boulevard.

What we were not prepared for was the cordial welcome extended us by the proprietor's father, Frank Thorp, who is visiting in the west this winter from his home in Minneapolis. After a short conversation, it developed that the history of our two families parallel amazingly. While our father's family consisted mostly of boys, his family ran to girls, but both men brought their children up in the mysteries and lore of the printer's world. The parallel extends even further when it was discovered that both families resided in the western part of the state of Iowa and it might even be found that they overlapped in some instances in their journalistic efforts, if it were not too long ago to remember. When asked to judge the age of our genial host, we appraised his briskness and agility with a non-practiced eye and made a conservative estimate of eighty years. We were not prepared to receive the information that Flag Day, this year, would see the ninetieth birthday of this veteran of the years.

We are proud to pay tribute to these grand old men of the printing presses like Frank Thorp and our own father, who have forgotten more about the trade than we will ever know.

Cards Retell Easter Story

GREETING cards that strike a note of spiritual joy are becoming increasingly popular at Easter time.

Ancient traditions lend special meanings to many designs. The lily is associated with Easter, for example, because of a Judean legend that wherever the risen Saviour walked, the white blooms sprang up in his footsteps.

Daffodils are another favorite because of their resemblance to a trumpet, the musical instrument most often mentioned in the Bible.

But the greatest Easter tradition of all is attending church services, reverently pictured on many of the greeting cards which carry the nation's hopes for a joyous Easter on Sunday, March 28.

Cypress Youth Group Wins Church Prize

When the delegation of young people from the Cypress Nazarene church returned home from the Orange county zone rally at Brea last Thursday night they had in their possession the attendance banner which they had won by the slim margin of four points. This makes twice in a row that Cypress has captured the coveted award which makes some sort of a record considering the size of the church in comparison with those in the larger towns of the county. Winning groups are judged by the number of delegates present as compared with the total membership and the number of miles traveled to attend the meeting.

Attending from Cypress were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Napier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heikes, Rev. and Mrs. Eric Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Shirey, Mr. and Mrs. James Burkey, Mrs. Lloyd Wallis and daughter, Lois, Mrs. J. C. Tartar, Hollis Woodmansee, Howard Coffman, Dick Shirey, Bobby Stearns Stanley Martin, who gave the report from the Cypress group, Etta Bodkins, Jodean Stockton and Gayle McCoy.

Los Alamitos

A group of Cub scouts gathered at Anaheim City park recently for an outing and viener roast. Accompanying the boys were den mothers Mrs. Elva Owens, Mrs. Cleo Ard and Mrs. Opal Gaa, and the cub master, Marvin Smith, who enjoyed the games as much as the youngsters. Those present were Tommy Kerr, Billy Poe, LeRoy Sjostrum, Dave Smith, Tommy Gaa, Nelson Owens and Shorty Ard.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sunderman and family have recently purchased the dwelling at 567 Green street and before moving in will completely redecorate. They formerly lived in Naples.

Enjoying a brief vacation with relatives in Lancaster are Mrs. Cleo Ard and sons, Smoky, Sonny and Shorty. During her absence from the post office, Mrs. Joy M. Dunn will assist Mrs. Blanche Dunn, the postmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hildabrand are enjoying a motor trip to their former home in Russellville, Kentucky. They plan to be away for three weeks. Hildabrand is stationed at the Los Alamitos Naval Air base.

H. H. Wells, father of Mrs. R. L. Cue, has been critically ill and is now a patient in St. Joseph's hospital.

Pfc. Charles Long, more familiarly known as Chuck, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Coy L. Long, has returned from overseas duty with the army and is now stationed at Camp Stoneman awaiting his discharge.

The home of Lt. Commander Roger Crow on Green street has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thomas and family of Dominguez who are now occupying the premises. The Crows are now living in Seal Beach.

A social birthday club has been formed by members of the American Legion auxiliary, the last meeting taking place on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Woody Badgett. This group meets twice a month for luncheon with the hostesses being chosen in alphabetical order. Each member pays 25 cents, with the money going into a fund which will be used to buy a birthday gift for the members as their birthdays occur. The next meeting will take place March 30 at the home of Paul Beeman.

Mrs. Robert Cue was recently the honor guest at an anticipation shower at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Lee Crites, in Artesia. Many lovely gifts were received by the young matron from the guests, most of whom were neighbors during her stay in Artesia. Attending from Los Alamitos was Mrs. Fay Ellis.

The birthday anniversaries of Mrs. M. W. Robinson and her daughter, Joan, which occur on the same day, were given pleasant recognition on Tuesday evening when they were dinner guests of Mrs. Robinson's son-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Varnay of Long Beach at Sam's Sea Foods cafe on the Coast highway. Also included in the party were Mr. Robinson and their son, Fred.

Mrs. James Lewis of Long Beach, mother of Mrs. Rowena Wierman, has been seriously ill and confined to her bed for the past three weeks.

Lyman Booths Of Harding Entertain

Sunday was full of surprises and thrills for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Booth, who with their small daughter, Linda, came down from Coaltinga on Friday to spend the weekend with the Lyman Booths, parents of Mr. Booth, and also to visit Mrs. Booth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robey.

In honor of the birthday anniversaries of the pair which occur on the same day, Mrs. Booth entertained with a family dinner at noon. The surprise came when a group of friends, most of whom were school mates at Anaheim High school, arrived in the afternoon for a get-together and to continue the birthday celebration. The boys gathered together and compared their experiences while in the service while the girls caught up on the latest news of others with whom they had associated while in school.

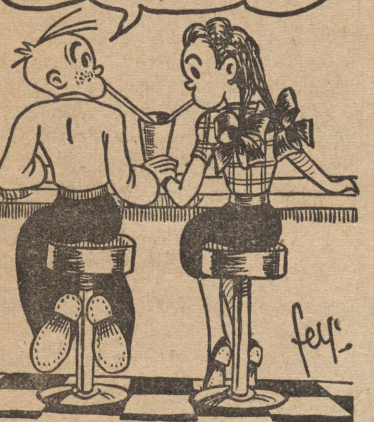

Another exciting feature of the afternoon was the model airplane meet which was staged on the field on Grand avenue which is being prepared by Lyman Booth, who has made the planes as a hobby, and has interested his son, Raymond, and his son-in-law, John Murdock, in making models. Several others also had their planes with them to try out on the new field.

An Easter motif was observed by Mrs. Booth in her house decorations and refreshments of cupcakes, the icing of which was colored to represent Easter eggs and ice cream molds centered with an Easter lily, served on individual trays.

Guests present during the day in addition to the honor guests, were Mr. and Mrs. Raydell Bobst (nee LaWanda Woods), Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fogg, (nee Donna McWilliams), Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Killenbeck (nee Sylvia Boettcher) and small daughter, Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waddell (nee Betty Samis), Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Maas, Miss Ardell Messersmith and her fiancé, Paul Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. John Murdock (nee Jerry Booth) of Buena Park; Mrs. Edith Porter and daughter, Linda of Helendale, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mobley and children, Richard, Donald and Mary May of Costa Mesa; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robey and daughter Shirley, and Albert Moon of Buena Park; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bader and son, Guy, Jr. and grandson, John Cyzens of Bellflower, with the Booths completing the party.

Surprise Party For Joan Robinson

The 16th birthday of Joan Robinson was occasion for a surprise party one night last week, which had been planned by her mother, Mrs. M. W. Robinson. Guests gathered at the home of a neighbor and proceeded to the Robinson home in a body, shouting "surprise" when Joan answered the door bell.

Mrs. E. S. Wells assisted the hostess in introducing the games which were the diversion of the evening. Refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream were served at the close of party time to the guests who were members of the Young People's class at the Los Alamitos Community Congregational church and included Sonny Ard, Richard Meyers, Reinhard Brundage, John McConaughy, Gary Wells, Marjorie Bock, Ritaae Koverman, Barbara Bastian, Fred Robinson, Mrs. Wells and the honor guest.

LUNCHEON CARD PARTY

The home of Mrs. Frank Leverich on Belmont street was the meeting place of the Gillettes Wednesday when they met for luncheon and an afternoon of card playing. Decorations for party appointments were in the St. Patrick motif.

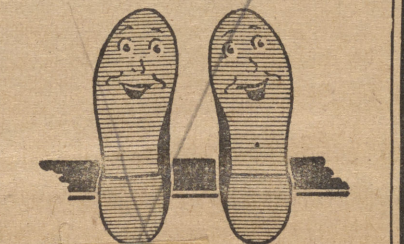

Winner of high score prize was Mrs. Frank Cardoza, second high, Mrs. Johnny Cardoza and Mrs. Frank Ferriera, low.

Chesley Cawthon Is Bride Of Murl Jasper

At a quiet ceremony performed in the parsonage of the First Congregational church in Riverside, Miss Chesley Cawthon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cawthon of Cypress, became the bride of Murl Jasper, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jasper of Belmont Shore. Rev. D. Yinger, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman.

For her wedding, the bride wore a stylish suit dress of gold colored gabardine with a large natural colored Tustan straw hat trimmed with red roses and green ribbon. Her gloves, bag and shoes were also of green and her corsage was fashioned of gardenias.

After a brief honeymoon at Laguna Beach, the new Mr. and Mrs. Jasper will make their home in Long Beach.

The bride was graduated from Cypress Elementary school, Anaheim High school and attended Fullerton junior college. Her bridegroom is a graduate of Long Beach Polytechnic school and served as a flight lieutenant in the R. A. F. during World War II. He is a flight instructor at the Long Beach Municipal airport.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cleek are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of their first baby, a son, who was born on March 20 in Fullerton Cottage hospital. The baby, who weighed nine pounds, one ounce at birth, has been named Edward Thomas and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cleek of Cypress. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Thomas Link of Slaughter, Kentucky.
